1. Roll Call:

- Vice Chair Evans called meeting to order at 5:31.

2. Public Comment:

- Kathy Gallatin arrived late and introduced herself and explain her long-term relationship with Art Along the Rogue as a volunteer and a participating artist.

3. Action Items:

- Purpose of the meeting was to determine CoPA's interest and involvement to resurrect Art Along the Rogue to kick off first Friday in October and through the weekend.
- City information coordinator Steven Sabel gave a history of the event and the previous meetings that were held with City Manager and Mayor.
- He has been in contact with several potential volunteers (review committee) who are willing to assist to make the event a success.
- Discussion of budget and artist stipend were part of the conversation.
- CoPA committee would form a sub-committee to oversee the logistics with Steven Sabel the City point person and organizer.

MOTION/VOTE

Chair McDougall moved, and Member Holzinger seconded the motion “We support the independent review committee recommendation and ask that the City commit a minimum of $10,000 as base funding for Art Along the Rogue with the expectation that additional support will be solicited”. The vote resulted as follows: “AYES”: Vice-Chair Evans, Chair McDougall, Members Morse, Holzinger, Lofing-Dean, and Kenney. “NAYS”: None. Absent: O’Brien.

The motion passed.

- After the motion was made it was understood that more discussion would follow. The urgency to fast track will be imperative to get everything arranged by October.
