Release, Covenant Not to Sue, and Hold Harmless Agreement

WHEREAS:

- A. The City is willing to allow the Rider/Observer the opportunity to accompany and ride with a police officer(s) in a police vehicle, while in the performance of their duties, for the purpose of observation, said opportunity hereinafter referred to as "ride along."
- B. The City is willing to allow the Observer the opportunity to sit-in the Dispatch or Records Section to observe dispatchers/records personnel in the performance of their duties, for the purpose of observation, hereinafter referred to as "sit-in".
- C. The Rider understands and appreciates that there are known and unknown risks which the Rider will be exposed to in a ride along, and Rider does not wish to hold the City of Grants Pass, or any of its officers, employees, agents, or representatives responsible in either a Municipal or personal capacity for any injury, death, disability, or damages to property that may occur as a result of the ride along, regardless of who may be at fault. Rider knows that the risks are too numerous to mention herein, but include without limitation, such things as traffic accidents, the discharge of firearms, fights, brawls, altercations, riots, fire calls, rescue calls, medical calls, hazardous material calls.
- D. The observer understands that while observing they will see and hear information that is confidential in nature, including information on a computer terminal. Disclosure of any information can result in criminal and civil charges being filed against the observer and can result in civil liability for the public safety agency involved. Therefore, in order to protect the confidentiality of the information and to protect the integrity of agreements which the Grants Pass Police Department has with local, state, and federal agencies the observer agrees that any and all information that they see, hear or discuss while participating in the observation period will not be repeated to anyone without written permission of the Grants Pass Chief of Police.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and of the mutual covenants contained herein:

1. PERMISSION: The City agrees to let rider/observer participate in a "ride along" or "sit-in"
2. PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN: If rider/observer is under 18 years of age, Rider/observer's Parent or Legal Guardian must also sign and agree to the terms of this RELEASE, COVENANT NOT TO SUE AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT. The parent or Legal Guardian agrees that all provisions referring to rider/observer are to be interpreted as rider/observer and rider/observer's Parent or Legal Guardian.
3. BINDING: Rider/observer is signing this document with the express intention of binding Rider/observers, Rider/observer's heirs, personal representatives and assigns.
4. INTERPRETATION: This RELEASE, COVENANT NOT TO SUE, AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT is to be interpreted in the broadest sense possible in favor of the City of Grants Pass, its officers, employees, agents and representatives shall include but not be limited to death, disability, injury, and property damage.
5. VOLUNTARY AND TRUTHFUL: Rider/observer is signing this RELEASE, COVENANT NOT TO SUE, AND HOLD HARMLESS AGREEMENT as a voluntary act and deed and acknowledges that the representatives made herein by Rider/observer are true.
6. RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION: Rider/observer does hereby agree to indemnify, release, save, protect, hold harmless, discharge, and covenant not to sue nor to institute any action of law or in equity against, the City of Grants Pass, Oregon, and all of its officers, employees, agents, and representatives, for and from any and all claims, demands, actions, liabilities, judgments, and executions that Rider/observer (or anyone claiming through or under Rider/observer) ever had, now has, or may have in the future, known or unknown, which might or do arise from, are created by, or are a consequence of Rider/observer's participation in the ride along or sit-in, including, but not limited to; the arrival, preparation, and
